Mission:

Same as everyone owns their own business, we do our work and behavior accordingly, and we are fed by the results we achieve. We have the vision to contribute to the change and development of the company. We own company assets like our own and act by considering the long-term success of our company. We believe that our colleagues want to use their potential to the full. Everyone encourages each other to meet high standards and difficult goals. We use our resources efficiently; we improve ourselves in producing results and eliminating obstacles. We take responsibility for meeting business requirements, improving our systems, and helping others. We make works that add value to the work, we simplify and facilitate the work we do. We are insistent and determined to do the best work we receive. We never find the current situation sufficient and question it, we constantly improve our business model in order to be more successful. We trust each other's skills and intent. We establish close and productive relationships with our customers and business partners.

Vision:

By combining with our customers with similar values, to do business that will contribute to our vision of the future, to correctly determine the principles and beliefs that determine the content of behavior between our customers and employees. To adopt the highest standard in the matters we have an impact. Continuing to improve and change is to take responsibility by seeing the work of our customers and improving the lives of our employees as an opportunity, and to leave a positive impact on our commercial and personal relationships. It is always doing the right thing, being honest and straightforward with each other and acting in accordance with the law. Providing information according to the data while proposing solutions to our customers or evaluating the risks is to determine our understanding of responsibility.
